

MAY MODIFY
THE LID ORDERPresident Taft Has the Matter
Under Consideration.

THE ONLY LOGICAL SOLUTION

Declared by Member of Minnesota Congressional Delegation to Be the Restriction of the Ballinger Prohibition Order to the Region of the Indian Reservations.

Washington, Dec. 8.—All the facts bearing on the operation of the Ballinger lid order in the "Indian country" of Minnesota are now before President Taft and he has assured members of the Minnesota delegation in congress that the case will have careful consideration. There is reason to believe that before many days an executive order will be issued restricting the "dry zone" in the state to the territory contiguous to the Indian reservations. The president has not told any Minnesota member that he will take such action, but those conversant with the situation declare that it is the only logical outcome of the matter.

Unless the president acts Secretary Ballinger intends to pursue the course laid down in his order. He informed members of the state delegation that the next step in the crusade would be to enforce the prohibition clause of the treaty of 1851. This applies to the southern part of the state, running from the Mississippi river to Moorhead and taking in a wide stretch of territory. Railroads and express companies will soon be advised, if notice has not already been served on them, to discontinue the shipment of liquor into that region.

Not a Temperance Question.
A prominent member of the Minnesota delegation, who refused to permit the use of his name in this connection, said:

This is not a temperance question. It is a question as to whether Minnesota is entitled to the rights accruing to statehood. If this prohibition order is to be enforced to the letter by the federal government it means, so far as police power is concerned, that Minnesota is still a part of the public domain. It means that Minnesota no longer is to enjoy the rights exercised by the other states of the Union. I admit that Secretary Ballinger's duty in the premises is plain. But the president has authority to restrict the operation of the prohibition clauses in the Indian treaties, and I am inclined to believe that after consideration of all the circumstances he will direct that the Ballinger order be vacated, and that prohibition of the liquor traffic be enforced only in the region of the reservation. That is the reasonable solution of the problem."

Secretary Ballinger freely discussed the liquor situation in Minnesota with callers at the department. He pointed out that his order would be sweeping in its effects. He said not only would a ban be laid on all intoxicating liquors but upon all patent medicines, extracts and other compounds of which alcohol is a component part. The railroads, he said, would be notified that patent medicines and all substitutes for fire-water containing alcohol must not be shipped into the prohibited territory.

President May Abrogate Four.

It has been pointed out here repeatedly of late that of the five treaties under which Secretary Ballinger's agents are proceeding four of them may be abrogated in their entirety or modified by the president. One of them, the treaty of 1855, may be vacated only by congress. Its prohibition clause, however, officials say, may be modified or restricted in its application.

Protests against the Ballinger order came to the White House in such volume that the president decided to give the case his personal attention. All the data in the department here relating to the subject was sent to the White House. The map showing the "dry" section of the state was included in these papers. This record the president examined at some length and he gave assurances he would give further attention later.

The transcript of the testimony given by Indian Commissioner Valentine before the house Indian committee early in the week has just been made public. It does not disclose anything particularly new. Mr. Valentine's testimony was largely historical, being a narrative of the activities in the state of "Pussyfoot" Johnson and his deputies. Commissioner Valentine admitted in reply to questions that the baggage of travelers had been rifled by government agents who were in search of contraband goods, but he informed the committee that the employees guilty of these acts had been dismissed from the service.

Chicago Men Get a Bonus for Christmas Work.

Chicago, Dec. 8.—The strike of drivers in the big retail stores, which threatened to prevent Christmas deliveries, has ended. A compromise was reached which, the strikers say, is a victory for them. The men were promised a bonus of $15 each, to be paid them on Christmas day, two weeks' vacation each summer, and an arbitration of the wage scale to be undertaken Jan. 1, 1911.

The strike was declared three days ago and over 500 men went out.

PRESENT SYSTEM HELD
TO BE INEFFICIENTLake States Conference Wants Forest Commission.

St. Paul, Dec. 8.—Without formally adjourning delegates to the first Lake states fire conference, held here, concluded their meeting following the adoption of a set of resolutions in which legislative measures intended to prevent and check forest fires were recommended for the states of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. No arrangements were made for future meetings.

Briefly, the resolutions provided for the establishment of a nonpartisan commission in the several states, constituted with adequate authority to act and to prescribe rules and regulations for the control of the forests. Present systems in the three states were declared to be inefficient.

As the delegates scattered throughout the corridors of the hotel nothing was heard except expressions of satisfaction over the results of the meeting. There was surprise, both at the attendance and at the interest shown, and it was declared entirely unexpected that such a unanimity of opinion should prevail in the framing of the resolutions.

Conspicuous in the afternoon gathering were the number of fire insurance men present. They sat alongside of railway presidents, lumbermen, foresters, professors and students in complete agreement with these that forest fires were losses both to business enterprises and to the community at large.

Following the adoption of legislative recommendations a resolution was passed to the effect that a campaign of education be undertaken with the object in view of arousing public sentiment to the value of precautionary measures. By this method it was hoped to bring the people to a better understanding of forest conditions.

The discussion which preceded the adoption of the resolutions was informal in its nature. John E. Rhodes, president of the Minnesota Forestry association, presided at this meeting.

Instantly Killed.

Lisbon, N. D., Dec. 8.—Mark W. Davis, a young business man of Lisbon, was instantly killed. He was returning in his auto from a trip in the country when the front wheel of the machine collapsed, causing it to turn turtle. The back of the front seat caught him, crushing him beneath the car and breaking his back.

Mr. Davis was held in high esteem in Lisbon business and social circles. He was active in the Knights of Pythias of this state and was one of the best workers in the local lodge.

SEEKING PLACES
ON COMMITTEESDemocrats In Congress Pulling Wires For Next Session.

HOUSE LIKELY TO NAME THEM.

Factional Differences Have Arisen
Among the Democrats, and Insurgents
Are Sated For Punishment—Tou
Velle Envelope Bill Provokes Lively Contest—Champ Clark's Flower.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 8.—[Special.]—With nearly the entire membership of the house present the wirepulling for committee places in the next congress has begun in earnest. The Republicans are interested as onlookers, for they will not have much to say about the committee assignments. But with the Democrats it is different.

No Democrat now in the house was ever chairman of a committee. Men have attained ranking places on committees by length of service, but in several instances these ranking members are not all fitted for chairmen. Aside from the rank of members, there is the question of locality as to state, affiliations and factions to be considered, which will become more pronounced as the session progresses.

It is not yet known whether the speaker will appoint the committees or the house will elect them, though it is almost sure the latter plan will be adopted. Most of the Democrats are on record in favor of taking the power of committee appointments from the speaker, and they will be obliged to stand by their votes. That, being conceded, makes the wirepulling now going on interesting, for it is not to the prospective speaker that they must look for favors, but to the majority of their party.

Fear Factional Fights.
Already the contest has reached a stage where factional differences have arisen. It appears to be the intention of the "regulars" among the Democrats to punish the "insurgents" of their party.

The regulars are those who followed Champ Clark in his alliance with the insurgent Republicans when the present house was organized, and the insurgents are those who saved Speaker Cannon and his rules. For a long time they were known as "Cannon Democrats." There is a disposition to prevent any of them from landing good committee chairmanships.

Congressman Fitzgerald of New York, who was the leader of the insurgents, has been picked out for discipline. There are a number of stanch party men who say he shall not be rewarded with the chairmanship of the appropriations committee, of which he is the ranking Democrat.

The Tou Velle Bill.

Congressman Tou Velle of Ohio awoke to find himself famous. He is the author of a bill to prohibit the printing of business cards on stamped envelopes furnished by the government. Printers throughout the country complained that the government had become such a rival that they could not compete in the envelope business; hence Tou Velle introduced a bill restricting the government in furnishing such envelopes.

And now comes the other side. Business men who have been getting the envelopes are pouring in protests against the Tou Velle bill. They say that it will make their envelopes cost a dollar more per thousand if they can no longer be furnished by the government. There is likely to be a big fight over the measure.

Champ and His Flower.

Champ Clark now daily sports a flower in the buttonhole of his coat lapel. Many other prominent men in the house are also provided in this manner, and it is noticeable that more flowers appear on the Democratic side than before.

There is an old employee in the house who is a florist farmer. Every day he brings a large box of flowers to the house, and the leaders are given a blossom as they pass by him. "My daily bribe," remarked Speaker Cannon one day as he accepted one of the flowers. Now Champ is particularly favored, and his buttonhole adornment is even better than that of the speaker.

Flowers as well as straws show which way the wind blows.

The Hoodoo Seat.

Any seat in the senate is good enough for the average man, but I should think that the man who wants to remain long would avoid the seat now occupied by Senator Beveridge. Henry L. Davies occupied it and was let out. Then Dolph of Oregon had it for two years and was defeated. Dubois of Idaho took it and failed of re-election. Spooner of Wisconsin occupied it, and as he saw the La Follette handwriting on the wall he retired. Then Beveridge took it, and now he is soon to become an ex-senator.

And just in front of this hoodoo seat is that of Senator Frye, who has occupied it for nearly a quarter of a century.

Senator Johnston of Alabama and Senator Hughes of Colorado came to the front at the beginning of the session. Hughes got the seat so long occupied by Senator Daniel in the front row on the Democratic side, and Johnston landed in the McEnery seat near by. Thus two comparatively new senators enter the front rank.

Rivers and Harbors Congress.

CO-OPERATION IS NECESSARY

President Taft Talks About Rivers and Railroads.

Washington, Dec. 8.—The seventh annual gathering of the National Rivers and Harbors congress convened here for a three days' session. The welcoming address of President Taft the annual report of President Joseph E. Alexander of the house committee on rivers and harbors, J. A. Patton of Tennessee and D. E. Skinner of San Francisco were the only ones delivered. Senator Borah of Idaho being unable to speak because of throat trouble.

"There was a time in the history of this country when river navigation was greatly more important than it is now," said President Taft in his address. "The growth of railroads and their entering into the trade of all sections of the country has diminished the importance of river navigation under existing conditions. The problem which you gentlemen have to solve and which all in favor of using water transportation must solve is the union and the co-operation of railroads and rivers. The terminal difficulties with respect to river transportation are the difficulties you have to overcome before you shall solve this question."

SERIOUS RIOT AFTER A MASS MEETINGMob Wrecks Street Cars at Toronto.

Toronto, Ont., Dec. 8.—Serious rioting occurred in this city following a mass meeting called to protest against the introduction of pay as you enter cars by the Toronto Street Railway company.

The system was installed on the principal car lines of the city two weeks ago. It caused general dissatisfaction, because, it was asserted, the company failed to provide proper cars. A mass meeting was called at Massey hall. The call was issued by the board of control through Mayor Geary and was intended merely to voice a lawful protest against the innovation. Many fiery speeches were made, however, and upon leaving the building the audience became a mob.

They attacked the street cars, dragged off the conductors and motormen and then proceeded to wreck the cars. All available policemen were called out, but they were unable to gain control of the situation, which grew more serious every moment.

Mayor Geary personally appealed to several sections of the mob, begging them to desist and go home. His advice was ignored and the work of destruction is still going on.

SHOT FIRED AT PICKETS

Causes Riot Among Garment Workers at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Dec. 8.—A shot, believed to have been fired at pickets that surrounded shop No. 5 of David Adler & Sons at Bow street and Arthur avenue, caused a riot of garment makers.

All of the windows of the shop were broken by stones thrown by strikers. Workers on the inside who had refused to join the strike were sent to their homes.

Tony Greco was arrested and locked up as the man who had done the shooting.

The 120 workers within the building were cut and bruised by the stones and huddled together to escape the missiles.

Canvas Ones at Grand Forks to Be Placed Under Ban.

Grand Forks, N. D., Dec. 8.—Smoke and canvas signs are to be placed under the ban in Grand Forks within a short time, in accordance with plans now being considered by the city council. The canvas sign question was raised through the Women's Civic league in a petition asking the council to pass an ordinance forbidding the use by merchants of the gaudy specimens of canvas signs used in announcing their big bargain sales, and pleading for its passage in the name of civic beautification. The smoke nuisance is to be abated by the adoption of an ordinance on the subject. As an evidence of the city's interest in the situation, smoke consumers will be at once placed in the municipal water, light and power plants.

How Timber Is Selected.

Timber was formerly selected according to its external appearance. The diameter and length of the piece, the straightness of grain, sometimes the weight, sufficed to determine both its commercial value and its destination. The diversified industries of the present day require a corresponding diversity in the wood employed. For one purpose the important quality is hardness; for another, elasticity; for a third, ease of working or resistance to attack by external agencies. The compound microscope is now used for the minute and careful examination of longitudinal and transverse sections of a specimen of timber.—London Telegraph.

INDIAN BILL IS BEFORE HOUSEMeasure Is Reported by Congressman Burke.

ABOLISHES PIPESTONE SCHOOL

Number of Other Non-Reservation Institutions of Learning Also Discontinued—Measure Carries Nearly a Million Dollars Less Than Amount Made Available for the Current Fiscal Year.

Washington, Dec. 8.—The Indian appropriation bill was reported to the house by Representative Burke of South Dakota, chairman of the committee on Indian affairs. It carries $8,160,985, which is $851,663 less than the amount made available for the service for the current fiscal year.

Complying with the policy of the present administration of the Indian office a number of non-reservation schools are discontinued, among them the institution at Pipestone, Minn.

The bill provides liberal appropriations for the civilization, education and support of Indians in the Northwest. Allowances are made for schools in that section as follows:

Rapid City, S. D., girls' dormitory, $20,000; central power plant, $10,000; Pierre, S. D., $5,000 to complete the irrigation plant and $10,000 for new buildings; Genoa, Neb., $5,000 for new dormitories; Fort Totten, N. D., new hospital, $8,500; for maintenance of Wahpeton, N. D., school, $20,000; for maintenance Bismarck, N. D., school, $22,000; for maintenance of Flandreau, S. D., school, $69,400, and for maintenance of Pierre, S. D., school, $62,500.

The sum of $600,000 is allowed for the support of the Sioux of different tribes, including the Santees of the Dakotas and Nebraska. Thirty thousand dollars is made available for the maintenance of the Indian asylum at Canton, S. D.

For Minnesota Indians.

For the support of the Chippewas of Minnesota the sum of $125,000 is allowed.

The appropriation for the suppression of the liquor traffic among the Indians is reduced from $80,000 to $70,000.

The bill provides for capitalization of annuities in pursuance of an agreement concluded with the Onondaga tribe of Indians of Wisconsin Jan. 4, 1909 on a basis of 5 per cent, and requiring an appropriation of $20,000. The result of this capitalization will be to eliminate the Wisconsin Onondagas from participation in the appropriation for fulfilling treaties with the Six Nations of New York, which appropriations hereafter will be reduced annually by $1,000.

The Carlisle, Pa., Indian school estimate was cut in half.

Although the senate was in session only a little more than an hour the business of the session was begun in earnest. A number of bills and resolutions were introduced. Generally the bills were of a private nature.

Among the exceptions was a bill by Senator Brown of Nebraska looking to the amendment of the railroad legislation of last session so as to prohibit one railroad company from acquiring control of a competing line, either by lease or purchase, and two by Senator Smoot regulating the public lands.

Ballinger Trouble to Be Aired in Congress.

INSIST FINDINGS ARE TRUE

Democrats Claim That the Meeting in Minneapolis Formulated the Only Official Majority Report on the Charges Against the Secretary of the Interior.

Washington, Dec. 8.—The majority members of the Ballinger-Pinchot investigating committee absolutely clear Secretary Ballinger of the charges of misconduct made against him by Gifford Pinchot and others of the interior department in every particular. The majority report, which was submitted to congress, is in striking contrast to that made last September by the minority members, who held that Mr. Ballinger was unfit for office and ought to be dismissed.

The fight over the two reports will now be carried into the senate and the house. The minority members of the investigating committee held a meeting and decided to maintain that their report, drawn last September, is the bonafide report of the investigating committee, and that the document submitted by the majority members is without official standing.

The minority members will contend that their report was adopted by a majority of the committeemen, who attended a meeting regularly called by Chairman Nelson in Minneapolis last September, and that as such it is the only "majority report" entitled to consideration by congress.

Minneapolis Meeting.

Several of the Republican members of the committee were absent from the Minneapolis meeting, and the Republicans who submitted their findings to congress hold that the Democratic report was a "snap affair." One Republican representative, Madison of Kansas, a progressive, joined with the Democrats in the report which they made three months ago condemning Secretary Ballinger.

With the assistant of Representative Madison the Democrats controlled the Minneapolis meeting by a vote of four to five, and when the regular Republicans realized that the Democratic game was several of them withdrew from the meeting so as to prevent the presence of a quorum.

A special rule will have to be adopted in the house before the fight over the reports can be carried to the floor, but the Democrats believe they will be able to get a sufficient number of votes to accomplish this. In the senate the question can be brought up without any difficulty. Friends of the administration expect to see a bitter contest and perhaps a good deal of mud throwing over the two reports of the committee.

INTRODUCED BY LENROOT

Bill Provides Permanent Tariff Commission.

Washington, Dec. 8.—Representative Lenroot of Superior introduced a tariff commission bill that is said to represent the ideas of the Republican progressives on the subject. The bill provides for five commissioners, who shall possess special qualifications, one having practical knowledge of manufacturing, one a representative of labor, one a lawyer who has made a special study of tariff laws, one who is an economist who has made a special study of wages and cost of living.

The commission is directed to ascertain the difference in the cost of production of articles in this and competing countries; also the cost of raw material, cost of labor, fixed charges, depreciation upon the true value of the capital invested and all other items necessary to determine the true cost of the finished products. The commission is directed to ascertain the market conditions and prices at which products of the United States are sold in foreign countries as compared with prices in the United States. All testimony taken shall be in secret session if the witness so desires, and the testimony so taken shall not be reported to congress in detail unless congress so desires.

The commission is given power to require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers and documents.

Change in Dates Made.

Carrington, N. D., Dec. 8.—A change in the dates for the hearing of the objections of the landowners of the state to the present express rates has been made by the state railroad commission in session here. Dec. 9 was the original date set for the hearing that is to take place at Fargo, but attorneys representing the North Dakota Landowners' association asked for the postponement, and new dates have not been fixed yet.

Merger Plans Completed.

Chicago, Dec. 8.—Plans for the long predicted merger of the Calumet and Arizona and the Superior and Pittsburg Copper companies were completed at a joint meeting of the directors of the Congress hotel. Interests in the companies are practically the same and the Calumet and Arizona smelters treat the products of both companies.

The report current last night that be unfounded. Nevertheless, many believe the time is not far distant when all the saloons and malt shops

Deerwood has five malt shops.
Ironton has one malt emporium and Cuyuna is said to have two. Cuyuna has one saloon and the village of Crosby has one saloon.

Deputy James M. Quinn closed Pill-spent last evening in Deerwood, returning to Brainerd today. He left this noon for Klondyke to superintend the shipment of wet goods.

Four strangers were at Deerwood last night playing "smiler" in a malt shop and many suppose they were assistant deputies ready to close Deer-wood.

The drug stores of Brainerd are unable to ship in any alcohol. The brewery, the hope and mainstay of the tonic drinking population of our city, continues to be the only producer of wet goods in a "vast, dry, arid country."

At the preliminary call of cases

Continued by consent were the Gardner vs. O'Brien Mercantile Co.

Passed and continued were the cases of the Duluth Brewing and

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Proceeding of the Board of County Commissioners at Meeting Held December 6th, 1910

Meeting called to order at 10:30
a. m.

All members present except Commissioner Kreech.

Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

D. A. Northrup appeared and requested that his wife's claim of $30 for care of baby be allowed in full, but the board let the matter stand at $20.00 as allowed at last meeting.

It was reported that the Gould bridge across Pine river was in a dangerous condition. A motion was made and carried to send the county surveyor out to inspect the bridge and report.

C. B. Clouse addressed the board on the subject of the Ft. Ripley bridge, stating that permanent repairs should be made this winter and that Morrison county stood ready to bear half of the expense. He estimated the total cost to be $1,500.00.
A motion was made and duly carried authorizing Morrison county to let a contract for the work and this county would pay half of the bill.

The following applications for abatement of back taxes were recommended to the Minnesota Tax Commission: Mrs. J. H. Lindsay on lots 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12, block 36, First

Inc. Mrs. Geo. E. Gardner on west
100 feet of lot 1, Block 1, Koop &
Walker's Add. for years 1902-3-4-5.

The county surveyor made a report on the Thesis bridge across the Nokay Sebie in Daggett Brook.
He stated that it would cost more to put the bridge in repair than it would to build a new bridge in comparison to the durability of the two structures. He also submitted measurments and profile of the river bed at the proposed new site on the section line between Sec. 8 and 9. A motion was made and duly carried authorizing the auditor to advertise for bids for a steel bridge 60 feet long with stone abutments.

Requisition for supplies at the farm was read and ordered purchased.

The following report of the farm for November was read and approved:
Receipts by sale of wood and the board at the next meeting, January 3rd, 1911.

The county auditor reported a balance of $5700.00 in the county ditch fund and no bonds falling due until next year and recommended that some of the bonds be taken up now and save the interest, whereupon Commissioner Kreech introduced the following resolution and moved its adoption: Resolved that the sum of $2853.70 with accrued interest from Dec. 1st, 1910, be taken from the General Ditch Fund of the county and that the same be paid to cancel county drainage bonds No. 6-7-8 now held by The Farmers and Mechanics Savings Bank of Minneapolis and also that $2500.00 with accrued interest, be taken from the same fund to take up that amount of the 4 per cent drainage bonds held by the state of Minnesota.

missioner Keinow, was put to a vote and carried unanimously, and the

"The Squaw Man"

"The Squaw Man," H. E. Pierce & Company's great play of Western ranch life, will be attraction at the Brainerd opera house Dec. 19. The section of this drama of the west will meet with wide approval in Brainerd and the production itself, promises to be one of the most pretentious that will be seen here during the present season. "The Squaw Man" is a genuine American play, replete with virility and strength.

Edwin Milton Royle, the author, has skillfully combined his ingredients of dramatic interest with the proper mixture of comedy and has succeeded in evolving a rare play wherein swiftly alternating laughs give place, frequently, to moments of intense pathos. The management has furnished a complete scenic production, the same as was used in Chicago and New York, which will be used, in its entirety, during the engagement.

Seamstresses, watch-makers, artists, draughtsmen, and many others, cannot properly handle their tools with cold, stiff hands. Many a lost hour or two on cold winter mornings results from the delayed heat of furnace or stove.

It has a damper top and a cool handle. Indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain, and cannot get lost.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection is finished in Japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Doone last week for outside reading. The boys' debating club received a challenge for a public school debate in the near future from the Gamma Delta Sigma. The challenge was accepted. The date, subject or participants of the debate have not been fully decided yet.

In all probabilities no basket ball team will be organized this year. A reason for this is that other teams have already practised for some time.

The juniors have finished reading The Last of the Mohicans, for outside reading. The seniors are now reading Milton's Minor Poems.

Supt. Cobb, the Wednesday before vacation, again brought before us the proposition of a literary society in the high school. He read the proposed constitution for the society. On account of limited time, a standing vote was taken on only about half the constitution. Each article was voted upon separately.

It has been and will be our aim throughout the year to follow in the footsteps of our predecessors, the class of 1910, in boosting for a gymnasium and for courses in manual training and domestic science. Such things are necessary that we may be considered as progressive as other high schools in the state and elsewhere.

Prof. Rankin, of the state university, State Supt. of Schools Schultz and Prof. Dwyer, of Bemidji, visited our school Thursday morning. Each one of them spoke before the pupils in the assembly room.

State Supt. Schultz spoke on the subject of schools in general. He said, "What is school work?" That this public school is not for the purpose of getting away from your home and from your parents. Any useful employment that trains you to useful habits is a school, such as factories, stores and farms. This is a public school any boy or girl has a privilege to enter here and gain an education. The amount of the value of your training does not depend upon the teachers but it is most dependent upon us. You have a good opportunity to get your material here for the rest of your life. Here is where we build the substantial foundations for our after life and we should take great care to make it substantial enough to support any structure we wish to build upon it. The best start for our future is our high school career. The high schools are splendid in Minnesota. He also said that more practical courses will be established when the country is more developed.

Mr. Rankin, an instructor in the state university, gave a short talk. He spoke along general lines of education in Minnesota. He said there were other ways of being educated besides that method of the high schools. He cited the more practical courses that were rapidly growing into favor, namely: the introduction of courses in agriculture in the country schools. He said that we should cultivate the body as well as the mind, and should not deny ourselves the outside sports.

Supt. Dwyer, of Bemidji, one of the teachers in the summer school of 1910, which convened here, was the next person to speak. He said that it was a good thing to be able to stand on one's feet and give a good speech. He said that it was good training for pupils to be called upon to give impromptu speeches. He said that he believed in producing something out of our school work. We can pick up a great deal outside of school. He said that we should have courses in manual training and domestic science. If we do not produce something as the result of our study we have failed in our primitive training.

On Friday morning we listened to a very interesting and practical talk by the Hon. Frank M. Eddy, of Sauk Centre, ex-congressman. The only person that is useful is the one who remains a student throughout his life. That education is more of a handicap than a result of betterment in industries is not so. In the United States only one in five persons is a graduate of some school, considering those persons over 21 years of age only. In the house of representatives while he was in congress, 289 out of the 356 had been graduated from some first class college in the country. In the senate, of the 95 members, 62 had been graduated from some college that furnishes a good education. Men who direct the state or nation are men who are graduates of good educational institutions. All educated men say that they could be more efficient writers and politicians if they had a more scholastic education in their younger days.

One-third of the people of the United States provide for their families by their hands or brains. The other two thirds are too old or too young, or too tired to work. Eighty percent receive a salary of $600 per annum or less, and the other 20 percent from $600 to $1,000,000. 85 percent of those of the 1st class are not graduates from any school. In the second class over three-fourths hold a certificate from some kind of a school.

Some people say that education leads up to criminology. Less than one fourth of one per cent of the inmates of the state prisons hold a certificate. Only four out of all the men who have suffered capital punishment have held a certificate.

Power to do things and to accomplish things comes from training. The value of the things we do depend upon our career and the things we accomplish. We are not paid for the work we do, we are paid for knowing how to work. A diploma is a certificate of good character and efficiency.

STOMACH TROUBLE GOES

Indigestion, Gas, Sourness, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Five Minutes After Taking Diapiesin

There would not be a case of indigestion here if readers who are subject to stomach trouble knew the tremendous anti-ferment and digestive virtue contained in Diapiesin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the sour, acid stomach in five minutes, besides overcoming all foul, nauseous odors from the breath.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will readily understand why this promptly cures indigestion and removes such symptoms as heartburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, belching of gas and eructations of undigested food, water brash, nausea, headache, biliousness and many other bad symptoms; and, besides, you will not need laxatives to keep your stomach, liver and intestines clean and fresh.

If your stomach is sour and full of gas, or your food doesn't digest, and your meals don't seem to fit, why not get a 50-cent case from your druggist and make life worth living? Absolute relief from stomach misery and perfect digestion of anything you eat is sure to follow five minutes after, and besides, one case is sufficient to cure a whole family of such trouble.

Surely, a harmless, inexpensive preparation like Diapiesin, which will always, either at daytime or during night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house.
